Secretary of State Provides General Election Voter Turnout Information

(Pierre, S.D.) - South Dakota's General Election was held Tuesday, November 3, 2026. According to the unofficial results, statewide voter turnout was 49.37%, with 310,298 ballots cast. Official results will be available at the conclusion of the state canvass on Tuesday, November 10, 2026. The canvass will be held in room 413 of the Capitol from 1-5 PM Central Time.

Secretary of State Monae L. Johnson stated: "I would like to thank all the voters that participated in this election. In addition, I would like to thank all the hard-working election officials and poll workers who made it possible for us to have a free, fair, and secure election for all South Dakotans."

Unofficial results for the 2026 General Election can be found on the Secretary of State's website at https://electionresults.sd.gov/.
