“An error has been made and your name should have been on the voter registration list.”

Please complete this emergency voting card and you will be able to vote.”

“Do you have a photo ID?”

“Because you are not able to present an acceptable photo ID, you now have an option. You may leave the polling place to retrieve an acceptable ID or you may sign this personal identification affidavit or you may choose to not vote.”

Please complete this personal identification affidavit.” Observe voter complete affidavit. Be sure that it is fully completed and legible.

Check to see if the ID is on the list of acceptable IDs.

Check to see that the photo matches the voter and that the name on the ID matches the name on the voter registration list.

Have voter complete the provisional ballot envelope and provide the voter with the “Notice to Provisional Voter.”

“The ID you have presented does not appear to be you and/or the name on the ID does not match the name on the voter registration list.”

“You may explain why the photo and/or name does not match and you may present other forms of identification to assist us in confirming your identity.”

Based on the identification you have presented and your explanation of why this identification does not appear to be you, you will not be allowed to cast a regular ballot. You may, however, cast a provisional ballot. The provisional ballot will be kept separate from the regular ballots and will only be counted if the auditor can later verify your identity. Your provisional ballot may not be secret. It is your choice whether to vote.”

Election worker or poll watcher challenges the voter as to the voter’s identity not being who they claim or that the voter has been convicted of a felony or declared mentally incompetent in the last 15 days. The challenger would present whatever evidence they have to the election board to support their claim that the person is ineligible to vote. “Your identity (or other cause) has been challenged. What explanation or evidence can you provide to rebut this challenge and prove your identity.”

“By majority vote, this election board has determined that the challenge is accepted and that you are not who you claim to be. You may, however, cast a provisional ballot. The provisional ballot will be kept separate from the regular ballots and will only be counted if the auditor can later verify your identity. Your provisional ballot may not be secret. It is your choice whether to vote.”

“By majority vote, this election board has rejected the challenge. You may vote.”

“The registration list shows you have voted absentee.”

“I will contact the county auditor to determine if your absentee ballot has been voted and returned.”

“Your absentee ballot has not been returned. You may vote in person today.”

“Your absentee ballot has been voted and returned. You may not vote a second time.”

“If you insist that you have not voted and returned your absentee ballot, you may choose to vote a provisional ballot. It is a crime to vote an absentee ballot and then vote a provisional ballot. The provisional ballot will be kept separate from the regular ballots and will only be counted if the auditor can later verify that you have not voted an absentee ballot. Your provisional ballot may not be secret.”
